

Hospital: Department: Date:

Your name: Your position:

Patient age: Gender: Present diagnosis:

CytoSorb® treatment days: Number of adsorbers: Ø CytoSorb® hrs/day:

Relevant comorbidities:

Reason for CytoSorb® therapy:

Mode of treatment: Haemoperfusion CRRT CPB Identification code:

Course of patient until start of CytoSorb® therapy

Please, briefly describe the clinical course of the patient until the initiation of the CytoSorb therapy, if possible separately per organ system.

Haemodynamics:

Respiration:

Kidney function:

Infection/Inflammation-parameters:

Indication for the use of the CytoSorb® therapy

For which reasons you have decided to use the CytoSorb therapy?
(e.g. "increase in catecholamine need", or „preemptive intraoperative use“)

System used for extracorporeal circulation (Manufacturer/type):

Clinical course after start of the CytoSorb® therapy

Please describe the further course under the use of the CytoSorb adsorber. Please differentiate as far as possible according to the following organ functions:

Haemodynamics:

Respiration:

Kidney function:

Infection/Inflammation-parameters:

Clinical assessment of the CytoSorb® therapy

Which clinical effects could you observe in this specific case by use of the CytoSorb therapy?

Practical handling of the CytoSorb therapy

How would you judge on the practical handling of the CytoSorb therapy? Please, in case, also provide your suggestions for improvement.

Summary / evaluation

How do you rate the CytoSorb therapy in general? Please also state if adverse effects could be observed, and, in case, which ones. In case there was no or a weaker than expected therapeutic success of CytoSorb: what was, in your opinion, the reason for this?