Program

7th International CytoSorb Users’ Meeting

October 29, 2020 | 3.00-6.30pm CET
Live from Berlin/Germany
Welcome

Dear CytoSorb users and other interested parties,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to our 7th International CytoSorb Users’ Meeting. We have transitioned this year’s meeting to a fully virtual event to make it easy and safe for you to attend.

You will receive an update on the latest scientific findings, recent study results and case series in different patient groups. The focus will be on giving you first-hand insight into clinical experiences with CytoSorb in various fields of application.

The event will be accompanied by a live act - let yourself be surprised!

We are looking forward to welcoming you!
